Guidelines

- Approval: Special studies courses must be approved by the instructor.
- Credit hours and time commitment: Special studies can be taken for 1, 2, 3, or 4 credits. The total amount of time a student should spend on activities directly involved in the course, including meeting with the instructor, is determined by the federal definition of credit hour: 1 credit hour represents 3 hours per week of academically engaged time for the entire semester (i.e., 12 hours per week for a 4-credit course, as per the Smith Faculty Code).
- Five College: Smith Students registering for a special studies at one of the Five Colleges must obtain the signature of the instructor at the host school and must also complete any required forms at the host school.
- Deadline: The completed Special Studies application, with instructor and chair/director signatures, is due to the Registrar's Office by the end of the first week of classes (fifth day of classes).
